NOTES:

[1] The estimates reported are based on projections provided by the states in November 2008. Allotments under CHIPRA 2009 will be based on updated projections submitted in February of 2009. As a result, the actual allotments will likely differ from those presented here.

[2] In subsequent modifications to their data, the allotments in Alabama and Georgia changed slightly. With these modifications, Alabama's allotment would be $135.3 million and Georgia's would be $280.5 million.
